v.

QUINTEN T CUPPS, et al.

JOHN L CONDREY

CONNIE TOTORICA GOULD
JUDGE CONTES

MINUTE ENTRY

The court has read and considered Defendant Eileen Rosel's Motion to Dismiss Plaintiff's First Amended Complaint (filed Nov. 26, 2018), response (filed Jan. 22, 2019), and reply (filed Feb. 7, 2018).

Defendant Rosel argues that plaintiff's first amended complaint should be dismissed with prejudice because (1) plaintiff did not file a timely notice of claim, see A.R.S. § 12-821.01, and (2) she is entitled to judicial immunity because her conduct in communicating with litigants and counsel occurred during the course and scope of her employment as an assistant to a judicial officer. For the reasons stated in the motion (at 5-6, 13-15) and the reply,

IT IS ORDERED granting the motion and dismissing plaintiff's first amended complaint as to defendant Rosel.
