MINUTE ENTRY

The Court has received Defendant Cynthia M. Lorenzo's motion entitled "garnishment of wages". It was filed on April 5, 2017, the same date that the Order for Continuing Lien was signed by the Court. Ms. Lorenzo requests that the garnishment be lowered to an amount less than 25% due to financial hardship. She is requesting clarification of the amount submitted as owed.

IT IS ORDERED setting a garnishment objection hearing to discuss Ms. Lorenzo's request for a reduction in the garnishment due to financial hardship for Tuesday, May 16, 2017 at 9:00 a.m. in Courtroom 303 of the Maricopa County Superior Court, Southeast Facility, 222 E. Javelina Ave., Mesa, AZ 85210.

SUPERIOR COURT OF ARIZONA
MARICOPA COUNTY

CV 2014-095784

04/24/2017

If Judgment Creditor does not oppose a reduction to the garnishment due to Judgment Debtor's financial hardship, Judgment Creditor should submit a proposed form of order to the Court and the Court will vacate the garnishment objection hearing.

FURTHER, Ms. Lorenzo wanted Judgment Creditor to explanation the amounts she owes as stated in the writ. IT IS ORDERED that Ms. Lorenzo shall contact Plaintiff's counsel Michael McGirr at 480-833-1001 to schedule a time for both of them to discuss her balance prior to the hearing. The parties shall go over the terms in the stipulated judgment, the incurring interests, assessments, costs and fees, and the payments made. If the telephonic contact resolves all her questions, the parties shall inform the court. If no discussion is held prior to the hearing, both Plaintiff's counsel and Defendant shall appear thirty minutes before the hearing to discuss the matter with each other. Both must come prepare to discuss their position with the court.
