JUDGMENT SIGNED

This minute entry concerns the non-earnings garnishment served on Bank of America, NA, garnishee, on or about March 11, 2013. The Judgment Debtor in this case is a corporation, Neurolegal Sciences, Inc. Apparently, Catherine Howard Klee is a principal of that corporation but not an attorney.

The Court has the request for hearing on this garnishment signed by Ms. Klee and purportedly filed on behalf of the corporation on March 19, 2013. As the Court explained in its minute entry filed on March 21, 2013, a non-attorney may not file pleadings or otherwise appear in court on behalf of a corporation. Supreme Court Rule 31(b). The Court denied the motion to set aside default judgment filed on behalf of the corporation by Ms. Klee for that reason. For the same reason, the Court now overrules the objection to garnishment filed by Ms. Klee on behalf of the corporation on March 19, 2013, and the proposed Garnishment Judgment submitted by the Judgment Creditor is signed by the Court on May 22, 2013, and filed (entered) by the clerk May 22, 2013.

ALERT: The Arizona Supreme Court Administrative Order 2011-140 directs the Clerk's Office not to accept paper filings from attorneys in civil cases. Civil cases must still be initiated on paper; however, subsequent documents must be eFiled through AZTurboCourt unless an exception defined in the Administrative Order applies.
