JUDGE COFFEY

MINUTE ENTRY

The Court has reviewed Plaintiff's Application for Amount of Attorney Fees Incurred Post-Judgment. From the Court's perspective, because the Judgment included Rule 54(c) language, the entire case was resolved when that Judgment was entered. Judgments that include Rule 54(c) language end the entire action unless the Court expressly maintains jurisdiction to address issues that may come up after the final judgment is entered. The Court is not aware of any language in the underlying Judgment or and applicable statutes that entitle Plaintiff to an award of post-judgment fees. If Plaintiff believes that such legal authorities exist, it may file a motion for reconsideration in which it provides the Court with citations to such authorities.

IT IS ORDERED denying Plaintiff's Application for Amount of Attorney Fees Incurred Post-Judgment.
