TORRE BLANCA ASSOCIATION

CHARLES E MAXWELL

v.

DENNIS M NEWMAN, et al.

JACK H SIMON

MINUTE ENTRY

3:10 p.m. This is the time set for oral argument on Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Judgment, Plaintiff's Motion to Continue Rule 26.1 Disclosure, and Plaintiff's Motion to Strike Defendant's Alternative Motion to Enlarge Time for Filing Response. Counsel Brian Morgan appears telephonically on behalf of Plaintiff. Counsel Jack H. Simon appears in person on behalf of Defendant.

Court reporter, Lorraine Chalkey, is present.

After argument,

The Court orders as follows:

1. Denying Plaintiff's Motion to Continue Rule 26.1 Disclosure Statement as the Court needs this to be produced before a hearing can be held on the Motion for Summary Judgment.

2. Granting Defendant's Alternative Motion to Enlarge Time for Filing a Response and denying Plaintiff's Motion to Strike Defendant's Alternative Motion.
3. Continuing oral argument hearing on Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Judgment to October 10, 2002 at 9:00 a.m. (15 minutes).
4. Setting hearing on Defendant's prospective Motion to Compel Answers to Defendant's Request for Production on September 23, 2002 at 8:45 a.m. (15 minutes).
5. The Court considers these hearings to be telephonic but any party may appear in person. As a courtesy counsel should advise the other party whether they will appear in person rather than on the phone.

3:27 p.m. Matter concludes.
