EXTENSION OF DEADLINE FOR RESPONSE TO MOTION TO DISMISS

SUPERIOR COURT OF ARIZONA
MARICOPA COUNTY

CV 2014-091592

10/21/2014

Certain Defendants filed a “Motion to Dismiss” on October 6, 2014. On Court’s own motion,

IT IS ORDERED extending the deadline for Plaintiffs’ response to this “Motion to Dismiss” to October 31, 2014.

A NON-LAWYER MAY REPRESENT ONLY HIMSELF

On October 16, 2014, a “Motion for Enlargement” was filed. This motion was purportedly filed on behalf of all Plaintiffs, although it was signed only by Plaintiff Camboni.

The above-ruling renders moot the “Motion for Enlargement”. That said, the Court makes note of the following:

- A party may be represented in Court only by himself or herself or by an attorney authorized to practice law in Arizona. For example, Plaintiff Camboni may not represent any other Plaintiffs in this case. For example, Plaintiff Camboni may not represent Plaintiff Shannon Chaboudy. For example, Plaintiff Camboni may not make arguments, file pleadings, or appear in court on behalf of any Plaintiff other than himself.
- A pleading purportedly filed on behalf of a party has no legal significance unless it is signed by that party or by an attorney authorized to practice law in Arizona. For example, a pleading purportedly filed on behalf of Plaintiff Chaboudy but not signed by Plaintiff Chaboudy would be subject to being stricken from the record.
