SUPERIOR COURT OF ARIZONA
MARICOPA COUNTY

CV 2017-053367

11/13/2018

This conference was set at the request of counsel for Defendant Pinnacle Peak. The issue centers on the scheduling of Plaintiff's deposition. The court will not summarize the events that have transpired but does note that defense counsel has been extremely accommodating in arranging for a date and time for Ms. Zinn to be deposed.

The deposition is presently noticed for November 27, 2018. Ms. Zinn asserts that her anticipated attorney from California will not be available that date. Further, she has anticipated travel involving care for a family member which also poses difficulties for her to submit to the deposition on November 27, 2018. After discussion, there appears to be means by which this issue can be resolved. This resolution includes selection of the date of first choice for Ms. Zinn and verbal assurances that she will appear to be deposed whether accompanied by counsel or not. If an attorney files a notice of appearance at any time before the deposition date, that attorney is appearing subject to the scheduled deposition. The attorney's unavailability shall not be a basis to continue once again the deposition.

Defense counsel shall issue an amended notice of deposition for December 10, 2018 at 10:00 a.m.

IT IS ORDERED that Ms. Zinn shall appear personally and submit to the deposition on that date at the time and location designated in the notice. Failure to appear without good cause shall subject Ms. Zinn to sanctions.

By agreement,

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED extending the deadline for disclosure of lay witnesses to December 28, 2018.

3:05 p.m. Matter concludes.
